ARR	Enterprise Clients	YoY Growth	Market Size

The Problem

Enterprise teams are drowning in fragmented, manual workflows that kill productivity.

Time Wasted

Employees spend 40% of their day on repetitive tasks that could be automated.

Data Silos

Critical business data lives in 10+ disconnected tools, creating blind spots.

High Costs

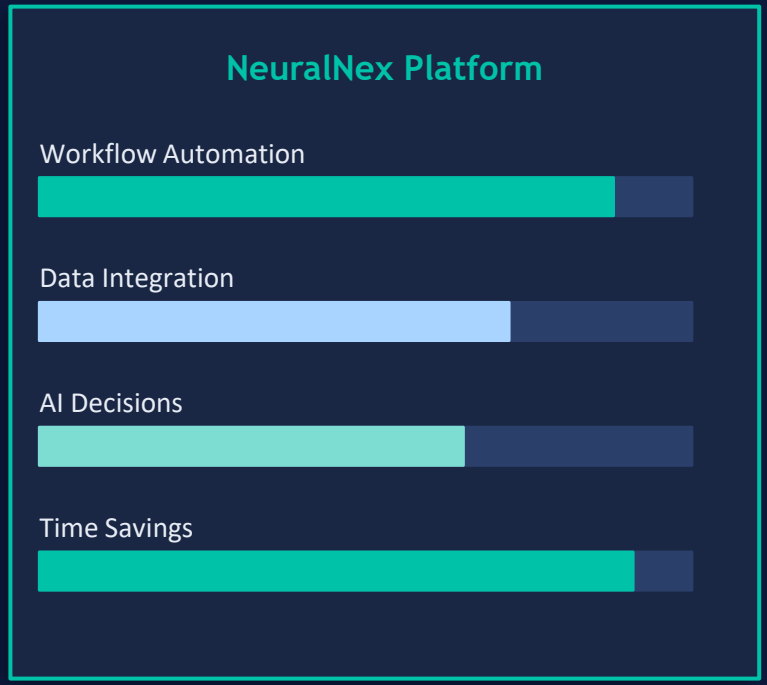

$7 trillion lost globally each year due to inefficient business processes.

Existing tools patch problems. They don't solve them. It's time for an intelligent layer.

Our Solution

NeuralNex is the AI-native operating layer that connects, learns, and automates your entire business.

1. Plug into 200+ enterprise tools in minutes via pre-built connectors
2. AI agents that learn your workflows and automate decisions autonomously
3. Real-time dashboard showing ROI, time saved, and bottleneck forecasts
4. Enterprise-grade security: SOC 2 Type II, ISO 27001 certified

How It Works

01

Connect

Integrate with your existing stack — CRM, ERP, databases — in under 30 minutes.

02

Learn

NeuralNex AI maps your processes, identifies inefficiencies, and trains autonomously.

03

Automate

Deploy AI agents that handle decisions, approvals, and actions 24/7 without human input.

04

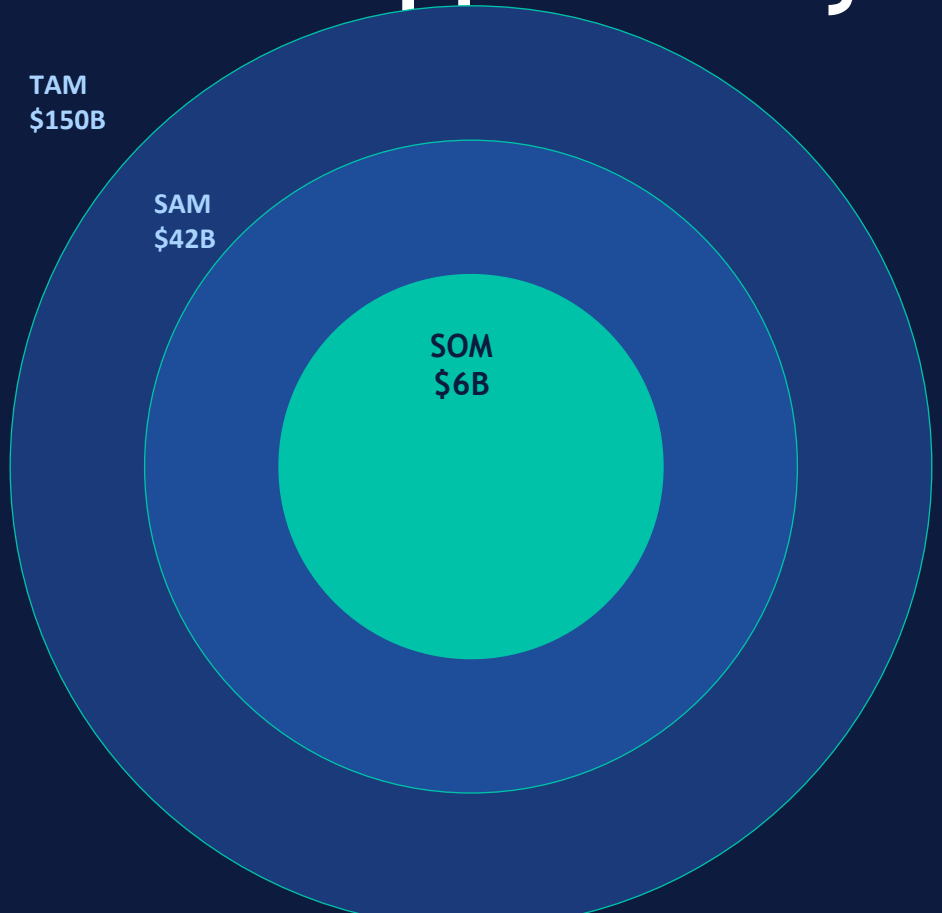

Optimize

Continuous learning loop improves performance and surfaces new automation opportunities.

Customers see ROI in as little as 2 weeks.
